

helps United Paws in another crucial way. Corporate sponsors prove to foundations, especially those out-of-state, that United Paws is a credible 501c3 nonprofit that they can trust will spend grant monies in the most cost-effective way to benefit the greatest number suffering the most.

United Paws relies on grants, individual donations, fundraisers and adoption fees; we receive no financial assistance from any government entity or national