

COAST W.K.D. MAY 6-12, 2010

Since the museum opened 20 years ago, the Peninsula Duplicate Bridge Club has met there on a weekly basis. This exhibition celebrates that legacy with a look into the bridge table of the past. "What's Trump? Setting the Table for Bridge" will be on view from May 9 through June 17. Museum hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays and noon to 4 p.m. Sundays. Admission is free of charge Thursdays, thanks to sponsorship by the Ilwaco Merchants Association.

The Neuter Scooter returns to the coast

TILLAMOOK — The mobile feline neuter and spay unit called the Neuter Scooter is returning to Tillamook on Thursday, May 13.

The cost is $50 per cat, which includes the spay or neuter and vaccinations. The cost for feral cats is $20. There is now a fee for a rabies vaccination. Organizers point out that this is still a bargain price, especially for a female cat.

Anyone wishing to take advantage of this deal must call (866) 662-5838 to make an appointment and receive the Scooter's location. People are asked to carefully follow the instructions given on the website at www.neuterscooter.com or to check the United Paws of Tillamook website at www.unitedpaws.org

the iconic cafe by noted West Coast photographer Jody Miller, and an exhibition of photographs from the book.

It is clear that Miller has been charmed by the spell of the Columbian Cafe, and her atmospheric color photographs capture its very essence. Copies of the book will be available at the opening reception from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, May 8, and Miller will be on hand to autograph them. The exhibition runs through June 8.

Miller, who splits her time between Astoria and Los Angeles, came to Clatsop County five years ago and has considered Astoria her second home ever since. She discovered the Columbian Café like most of us, through word of mouth. The spirit of the place, as well as its legendary carefully-crafted meals, captivated her, and that's where the book idea was born ... sitting at the counter watching chef/proprietor Uriah Hulsey work his culinary magic while keeping up clever banter for those who sit ringside.

This is Miller's first published book of her photographs, and about her subject matter she states: "This book is a compilation of photographs celebrating 30 years of the culinary excellence that is the Columbian Cafe, in Astoria, Oregon. It is 'a must' when visiting the northwest Oregon coast. Chef Uriah Hulsey is uncompromising in his use of the freshest seafood, vegetables and
